

Boys' Suits

with 2 pair of Pants

$5.00

It's never safe to pay less than $5.00 for a Boy's Suit. You can buy the "Adamant" as low as that and count on just double the wear any ordinary suit would give you. The name, "Adamant", wherever you see it, means stylish, durable, well-made, service-giving Boys' Clothes. It also stands for economy. All sizes, from 6 to 17 years, at $5.00

Others at $3.00, 3.50, 4.00

L. S. JEWETT
ST. Johnsbury, Vermont.

LOCAL GATHERINGS

—Advertised letters at the post-office: Ladies: Dempster, Mrs. R. D.; Mathews, Miss Jessie; Ward, Mrs. John. Gentlemen: Best, J. J.; Lyndhurst, Nat. (2); Reagan, Patk. H.; Scott, C. S.; White, Ed.
—Chamberlin Post, G. A. R., has engaged James B. Campbell to deliver the Memorial Day address and the sermon will be preached by Rev. Paul Dwight Moody.

—The Commercial Club will have dinner at the St. Johnsbury House Saturday noon. The subjects to be discussed are the question of fire insurance rates, the appointment of committees and a plan for bringing the subject of the elimination of grade crossings before the Public Service commission at the meeting here May 16.

—The annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. will be held Monday, May 13, following supper which will be served at 6.30. The usual business will be transacted and there will be speeches, among those speaking being Byron N. Clark of Burlington, state secretary.

—Caledonia Lodge, I. O. O. F., have accepted the invitation of Concord Lodge of Concord to visit them on Saturday evening and work the degree of friendship. There will be a special train leave here at 7 p. m. All Odd Fellows are invited to attend.

—A. E. Counsell and Son delivered their 21st motor cycle this week, a twin Harley-Davidson to St. Newton Stimson.

—The regular sewing meeting of the Brightlook Hospital Aid association will be held at the home of Mrs. A. F. Caswell, 4 Spring street, Monday, May 12.

—At the annual meeting of the Old Pine Golf Club held last week Tuesday evening these officers were elected: President, J. H. Brodie; vice president, George W. C. Hill; secretary and treasurer, Oscar E. Beck; directors, Paul D. Moody, E. A. Sisby, Clyde Fuller, Mrs. H. W. Blodgett, Miss Helen C. Stevens, Miss Margaret Merrill.

—The ladies of the W. H. M. S. of the South church met with Mrs. Helen Thompson on Summer street, Friday, May 9.

—There will be a private dance in Red Men's hall Wednesday night, May 7. The ladies of the Outlook club will furnish refreshments.

—Mr. Pooler who lately bought a building lot at the extension of Duke street, will build a house there this summer.

—Miles Hovey has the cellar dug for his new home on Lafayette street.

Wanted Family Help

At The Queen City Cotton Co., Burlington, Vt. Steady work, good pay. Learners taught free and receive pay while learning. Good tenements; moderate rents.

Apply at Mill.

RECENT DEATHS.

Parkhurst

Mrs. Fanny W. Parkhurst passed away Friday evening at 11.15 having been sick only since Wednesday evening although she had been in poor health for a number of years. In every enterprise which concerned the welfare of the town she was deeply interested and her beauty of character made her interest felt everywhere. She was for many years treasurer of the W. C. T. U., was a member of the board of visitors for Sunset Home from the beginning, was a charter member of the St. Johnsbury Woman's club and one of its first board of directors, was a past president of Chamberlin Relief Corps, and one of the strongest and oldest members of the Church of the Messiah. Her gracious presence and brave, noble personality will make her long remembered in the community. Fanny Wright Parkhurst was born in Cavendish, Sept. 10, 1841. When she was 15 years old the family moved to Proctorsville and she entered the Rutland high school while living there. For four years she taught school in South Reading, Felchville and Proctorsville and on March 12, 1864 was married to Sherman W. Parkhurst. They lived in Rutland, Burlington and Proctorsville and when the St. J. and L. C. railroad was built came to St. Johnsbury to live. Since then Mrs. Parkhurst has been deeply interested in the town. Four children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Parkhurst, Richard Sherman, who died in 1882, Nellie, who died in 1892, Fannie and Alice in 1897. Besides her two children Mrs. Parkhurst is survived by one brother, Charles A. Parkhurst of Rutland. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon from the home on Railroad street, Rev. B. F. Butler officiating, and Mrs. Ida P. Brooks sang. Interment was in Mt. Pleasant cemetery. Those who came from away to attend the funeral were a nephew, Dr. George D. Parkhurst of Fair Haven, Mrs. C. J. Bell of East Hardwick, Miss A. Dorcas Sawyer of Hyde Park, Charles D. Stevens and Mrs. M. Stevens of Lyndonville, Mrs. Sarah Chase of Barre, Mrs. Harry Davis of Danville, Mrs. D. C. Farrington, Mrs. D. S. Dow and Mrs. Sawyer of Passumpsic, Mrs. James Wilcox of West Danville and Mrs. O. C. Hall of St. Johnsbury Center.

Cranton

Henry L. Cranton, 77 years old, died at St. Johnsbury hospital Saturday after a week's illness with pneumonia. He was employed at the Avenue house during the winter and three weeks ago went to work for E. and T. Fairbanks and Co., by whom he was frequently employed during the summer months. He was born in Nova Scotia and had lived here 12 years. Two sons survive him, Merrill of Fitzdale and Herbert of Newbury, both of whom were here for the funeral which was held Tuesday morning, Rev. Peter Black officiating and interment was in Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

Lemire

The body of George Eugene Lemire was brought here on Monday from Waterbury, where he died that day following a fall. He had been at Waterbury since last October. He is survived by his wife, two sisters, Mrs. Louise Courchene, and two brothers, Joseph and David. The funeral will be this morning at eight o'clock from Notre Dame church.

West

Funeral services for Miss Nancy West who died last week Tuesday at St. Johnsbury hospital, which had been her home for the last nine years, were held Thursday morning at the hospital, Rev. B. F. Butler officiating and the remains were taken to Derby Line for interment. Two sisters survive her, Miss Marion West of this town and Mrs. D. J. Pulsifer of Philadelphia. Mrs. Pulsifer and her daughter, Mrs. M. T. Sweetser were called here by Miss West's death.

WEST BURKE

Officers Elected by Village Improvement Association—Personals
The Village Improvement Society met with Mrs. Ida Powers April 30, and elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Carrie Colby; vice president, Mrs. Nellie Gaskill; secretary, Mrs. Ida Powers; treasurer, Mrs. John Watcley.

Miss Bessie Flyer of Burke visited her grandmother, Mrs. Della Foster, the latter part of the week.

Mrs. H. L. Bishop entertained Miss W. Ismert of Claremont, N. H., the past week.

Mrs. Charles Coburn was in St. Johnsbury, also Mrs. Ellen Densmore and Mrs. H. S. Chappell.

Eldie Clark of the S. D. Advent church spent Sunday at H. L. Bishop's.

Mrs. Charles Fletcher was in St. Johnsbury on a business trip Thursday.

Miss Glen Roundy has accepted a position as teacher in St. Johnsbury and Miss Lilla Roundy in Lisbon, N. H.

Frank Balanger is making a cement walk across his land and to his door.

H. I. Foster and wife, A. D. Fogg and wife were in St. Johnsbury Saturday.

Miss Pearl Densmore and Mrs. Beatrice Chappell were in St. Johnsbury, Saturday.

Miss Hortense Campton of Lyndon spent a few days the last of the week with her friend, Miss Mattie Dickerman.

Mrs. Gentley of East Burke visited her son, Eugene Gently and family over Sunday.

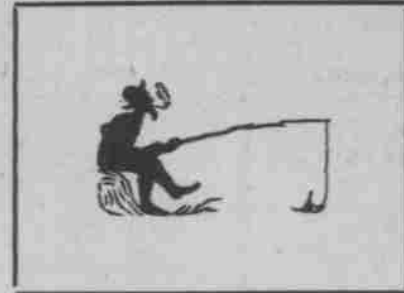

Mrs. Martha Gently has been suffering the past week with blood-poison in her foot.

Mrs. Wayne Stoddard is visiting her relatives in Montpelier for a few weeks.

Charles Cheney has sold his house

Fishing Tackle

ALL THE BEST MAKES

Specials in Oil

Silk Lines

Randall & Whitcomb

St. Johnsbury, - - - Vermont

to the Coe Brothers and bought a coat of Marvin Ball.

Rev. J. Q. Angell returned Saturday from Williamtown where he went to get his team.

Mrs. Maud Wheeler went to Lyndonville Monday to care for Mrs. Harley Chaplin.

Ray Rosebrook and family visited at John Rosebrook's Sunday.

Mrs. Ida Powers is giving her house a new coat of paint, Adin Cheney doing the work.

Mrs. Louise Stoddard is going Monday to Massachusetts to visit relatives for a few months.

Mrs. Cleasby of Littleton, N. H., returned Monday after a week's visit at R. W. Densmore's.

Eber Watson who sold his farm to Benna Marshall has moved to Sutton.

Mrs. Henry Bugbee went to St. Johnsbury Center Sunday to see her parents.

Walter Buck has moved his family into the Eugene LaRough farm on the Barton road.

Mrs. Clara Jones a nurse of Lyndonville, is taking care of Mrs. Arvilla Ainger. Mrs. Ainger is now able to sit up a little.

Mrs. E. P. Porter was in St. Johnsbury Friday.

Mr. Goodwin is in Island Pond on business for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Adna Burrington of East Burke visited at Hiram Moulton's, Sunday.

Mrs. Nettie McCoy is boarding at William Ainger's.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hill were in Charleston the past week repairing their house there.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cheney have moved onto their farm for the summer.

BARNET

Delegates to Christian Endeavor Convention at McIndoes—Locals

Dr. H. A. Elliott and wife and Howard and Harriet went to their old home in Rumney, N. H., last Saturday night, May 9th. Dr. E. A. Elliott went in the doctor's new automobile.

Bert Holbrook and family have gone to Morrisville to Mrs. Holbrook's father's, on a vacation.

The Barnet Brotherhood will meet at the school house Friday night, May 9th. Dr. E. A. Elliott will speak on "First Aid to the Injured."

Mrs. Kate Kinney was elected delegate to attend the conference of churches at St. Johnsbury, May 20.

C. B. Whitney went to Morrisville Tuesday on sheriff business.

At the business meeting of the Christian Endeavor last Sunday night the following delegates were elected to attend the C. E. convention at McIndoes in May, Mrs. Nancy Lamb, Hammond Kinney, Mrs. Margaret Willson and Virginia Elliott. The convention is May 15.

Dorcas Spafford of Orleans is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stoddard.

Mrs. Ira Albee is among the sick ones this week.

L. E. Gillilan has had his telephone taken out.

Mrs. Trussell of Boston is visiting her brother, W. S. Brock and friends in this vicinity.

Jerry Abbott of Woodsville, N. H., spent Saturday and Sunday at Walter Johnson's.

Joe Raymond is working for Chester Somers.

The road machine has started work.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Perley Ayer Wednesday afternoon at half past two. This will be a mother's meeting.

Mrs. Kate Kinney and Mrs. Annie Gillilan spent last Wednesday in St. Johnsbury.

Miss Florence Wilder was unable to attend school at St. Johnsbury last week.

Mrs. Leslie Baker is with her little daughter at her father's, L. E.

Gillilan's. Bargain day at St. Johnsbury attracted a lot of our townspeople last Friday.

The Barnet base ball team went to Peacham last Friday and played with the Peacham boys, the score was 16 to 9 in favor of Barnet.

Thomas McConcack will move his family from the Mary Richardson house into the John Hall house this week. Miss Richardson will move back into her own house.

Plynn Douse and family of Passumpsic spent Saturday and Sunday at Jim Morgan's.

Margaret Roy of Passumpsic was the guest of Dorcas Ayer last week.

EAST CONCORD

Sudden Death of Ira Grant Tuesday Morning—Local Notes

Ira Grant fell dead in his dining room Tuesday morning at 5.15. The funeral will be held at the church Friday at 11.30. Further particulars will be given next week.

Mrs. Frank Fisher was called to Groveton last Monday by the death of her uncle, Enoch Crawford. Mr. Crawford was a resident of this place for many years.

The long useful and peaceful life of Mrs. Viola Taylor went quietly out last Thursday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Hartshorn. She had been in her usual good health of late and after reading the paper and visiting with the family during the evening retired as usual. Soon after her daughter was called to her bedside and found her dead. Mrs. Taylor was 89 years of age and was born in Waterford and has always lived in this vicinity. She leaves one son and four daughters and several grandchildren. The funeral was held at her late home Sunday, Rev. Mr. Chase of Concord officiating. The interment was at Sunnyside cemetery beside her husband.

Henry Cranton died in the hospital at St. Johnsbury last Saturday. Mr. Cranton has lived in and near this village for several years. He leaves two sons.

Mrs. Muriel Steere and two children are guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Briggs for a few days.

Miss Lenna King who is attending high school at Concord entertained four of her schoolmates, Miss Hazel Davis, Miss Avis Bonnett, Miss Edith Virtue and Miss Bertha Wright, all of Concord, over Sunday.

Mrs. G. R. Crosby went to New Jersey last Monday, having been called there by the illness of her niece.

Mrs. John Folsom and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Webb spent last Friday and Saturday with friends in St. Johnsbury.

On April 27, Jackson Perry died at his home in the same room where he was born 93 years ago. He leaves 10 living children, eight of whom were present at the funeral which was held at the home Thursday.

Mrs. McGowan and son, Willie and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Morgan of Lunenburg were in the place last Sunday.

Mrs. Bertha Smith and Mrs. Maud Carr of Lancaster, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. William Gray and son, Walter, and Mr. and Mrs. Miles Gray of Colebrook, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. Bert Vance of Littleton, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. Lesley Hartshorn of Lyndonville were called here last Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Viola Taylor.

Mr. Kitteredge of Walden spent Sunday at Gardner Sanborn's.

The school in the O. N. Drew district will give a lawn party Thursday evening at M. Astle's. Lemonade and cake will be served.

The telephone company have been straightening the wires and taking them from the front of the houses and putting them on the back, improving the looks.

McINDOE FALLS
Miss Atalanta Field was home from Burke to spend Saturday and Sunday.

Robert Kendall left Monday for Walpole, N. H., where he has work for the summer.

Murry Little has moved his family from M. J. Moore's house into the McGrath house.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Fecteau have moved from Mrs. Paddelford's tenement to East Barnet.

Mrs. William Kibby has moved from the bridge house to Monroe, N. H.

O. N. Bedell has been tending the toll-gate at the bridge for several days.

BROWN'S RELIEF
Tired and Sore Feet Are Always Relieved when used as directed. Prepared by the Kew-Fennell Co., New York, N. Y.

YOUR MONEY REFUNDED
If it fails to benefit you when used strictly as directed on the inside wrapper. Try a bottle. Sold by all druggists.

Peacham

Program of North Peacham Social Club's Meeting—Minor Events of the Past Week

John Stevenson has returned from St. Cloud, Florida, where he has been spending the winter.

R. B. Kinerson has purchased an automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith who have been at Fred Gile's at Walden the past winter have returned to their home at East Peacham.

Henry Bolton has purchased a place at West Danville.

The North Peacham Social club held its third meeting Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Taylor. Sixty-nine were present. The program for this meeting was prepared by Mrs. Taylor and was as follows: Secretary's report, M. Geneva Chandler; instrumental music, Mrs. Leslie Adams; declamation, Clyde Brown; recitation, Janette Craig; song, Miss Geneva Chandler and Mrs. L. E. Harvey; music on graphophone, recitation, Mary Elliott; declamation, Paul Taylor; reading, "The Telephone Girl," Miss Geneva Chandler; piano duet, Mrs. Ainsworth and Mrs. Adams; recitation, Daphne Craig; dialogue, "The Sick Doll," Eva Allen, Wallace Taylor and Helen Sanborn; reading, Mrs. Robert Craig; song by children; essay, Mrs. Courson; piano duet, Mrs. Ainsworth and Miss Glenn Chandler; song, Lilla and Elson Douse. After the program refreshments of ice cream and cake were served and a short social enjoyed.

George Sanborn and Mrs. Laura Dana have moved to the farm recently purchased of Harley Esden.

Miss Iona Blaine of Barnet visited at Robert Steele's last week Tuesday and Wednesday.

Agnes and Herbert Steele were at St. Johnsbury Friday.

Peter Goslant had quite a sick spell while at Danville last Friday but is some better.

East Peacham creamery is closed and O. B. Exley, the butter maker, has gone to Ryegate to work in a creamery.

Arthur Peak was home from his work at St. Johnsbury, Sunday.

Miss Rose Davis of Walden visited her sister, Miss Ella Davis at Ewell's Hollow, Saturday and Sunday.

The G. A. R. memorial exercises will be held at Peacham this year. Rev. Mr. Brownell of West Barnet will be the speaker.

The East Peacham Whist club met with Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Exley Tuesday evening. Mrs. George Smith won the first prize and Alfred Peak second. After the game refreshments were served.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hobart was the scene of a double wedding Monday evening when their niece, Miss Goldie May Taylor was married to Fred Grigwer of Victory and Annie Grigwer and Bert Gallup, both of Victory, were joined in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. K. Williams in the presence of about 20 near relatives. Miss Taylor wore white embroidered voile and Miss Grigwer white silk. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Walter Hobart. The decorations were in green and white. After the ceremony refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Many beautiful presents were received by each couple. After a brief trip Mr. and Mrs. Grigwer will reside in town for the present.

NORTH DANVILLE

Harvey Varnum of Jeffersonville visited his mother, Mrs. Green, Monday.

Mrs. Ernest Clark and daughter of New York visited her grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Stanton the past week.

C. T. Clifford visited his sister, Mrs. Charlotte Sanborn Monday and Tuesday last week and Thursday was at McIndoes to buy a horse.

Mrs. Harriette Bailey who was reported better a few weeks ago, at this writing is not so well.

Harry Paquin's eldest son, Gusie, is very sick with enlarged glands of the throat.

Mrs. Charles Badger who has spent the winter with Mrs. Green has gone to spend a few weeks with her son at Danville.

Health Officer Dr. Henry Pache, was in town inspecting schools Friday.

H. B. Ward has purchased an auto.

Mrs. Shirley Merchant who last week got a needle in her wrist had it removed Monday, but at this writing is very sick. Miss Crawford of St. Johnsbury is caring for her.

Mrs. Blewitt is at Mrs. Jimima Green's for a while.

Harold Crapo whose home is at William Shattuck's has gone to Lyndonville to work in the shops.

Mrs. George Jew and son of St. Johnsbury Center were in the place Saturday.

Mr. Kittredge of Walden spent Sunday at Gardner Sanborn's.

The school in the O. N. Drew district will give a lawn party Thursday evening at M. Astle's. Lemonade and cake will be served.

The telephone company have been straightening the wires and taking them from the front of the houses and putting them on the back, improving the looks.

McINDOE FALLS
Miss Atalanta Field was home from Burke to spend Saturday and Sunday.

Robert Kendall left Monday for Walpole, N. H., where he has work for the summer.

Murry Little has moved his family from M. J. Moore's house into the McGrath house.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Fecteau have moved from Mrs. Paddelford's tenement to East Barnet.

Mrs. William Kibby has moved from the bridge house to Monroe, N. H.

O. N. Bedell has been tending the toll-gate at the bridge for several days.

J. H. Goodrich was at Sugar Hill, N. H., last Wednesday and Thursday on business.

J. H. Stuart has opened his garage in town with Jack Winchester in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Hight of Lennoxville spent several days recently with Mrs. Hight's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Larvey.

Mrs. Allen Day of New York was a guest at John Buffam's over Sunday.

H. C. Kent went to Boston the first of the week for a few days.

The schools have been quite broken up for the past two weeks by the measles.

M. D. Hunt had the misfortune to be thrown from the hand-car Friday and sprained his knee.

SOUTH RYEGATE

Mrs. N. A. Park and Mrs. H. W. Goodine were in St. Johnsbury, Friday.

Mrs. M. F. Sargent returned Monday from an over Sunday visit in Barre. Her mother, Mrs. Margaret Darling, who has been spending two weeks in Barre, returned with her.

Next Sunday morning Rev. Mr. Brownell of West Barnet will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian church. Rev. J. Ziegler will preach at West Barnet.

Mrs. V. Ziegler has been appointed delegate from the C. E. society of the Presbyterian church to the local union convention to be held at McIndoes, May 15th.

The Commonwealth Male Quartet will give a concert in the U. P. church Thursday evening, May 8.

Miss Jean Wylie of Boltonville was a guest of Mrs. C. M. Libbey over Sunday.

N. A. Park has taken James Craigie into partnership with him in the feed and grain business. W. T. George has finished work for Mr. Park and will take a well-earned vacation.

Mrs. B. H. Wright is substitute teacher in the grammar room of the village school this week, owing to illness of the regular teacher, Miss Anna Eliason.

The Clover Leaf Circle met Tuesday p. m., with Mrs. George Brown.

Raymond Beaton came home Saturday after a short stay in Concord, N. H.

Eastern Star Installation

Wednesday evening, April 23d, Mrs. Ella Homer as installing officer, assisted by Mrs. Carrie Page as marshal, Mrs. Lucilla Nichols, as chaplain, installed the following officers of Mystic Star Chapter, No. 29, O. E. S.: Mrs. Gertrude Bartlett, W. M.; Edmund Hamilton, W. P.; Miss Fannie Beck, A. M.; Mrs. May E. Heath, secretary; Mrs. Hattie P. Story, treasurer; Miss Minnie Beck, conductress; Mrs. Clara Branch, assistant conductress; Mrs. Bessie Cole, chaplain; Mrs. Mildred Beck, marshal; Miss Ouida Johnson, Adah; Mrs. Ethel Amidon, Ruth; Mrs. Ethel Beck, Esther; Mrs. Edna Bright, Martha; Miss Lulu Fulford, Electa; Mrs. Lillian Dillhoff, warder; Charles Newell, sentinel. The degrees were conferred on three candidates. A pleasant prelude to the work of the evening was a six o'clock dinner given to the retiring Worthy Matron, Mrs. Elizabeth Fuller by the officers of the chapter who at its close presented her with a P. M. gold jewel. Arthur Lang, P. M., was presented with a bouquet of carnations.

Webster-Gleason Wedding

Caledonia county friends are interested in the marriage of Miss Margaret I. Gleason and Dr. Harrison B. Webster of Castine, Me., on May 3. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Willis H. Butler of the Old South Church, Boston, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Stedman in Northampton, Mass. She was given in marriage by her uncle, Prof. Isaac Bridgman. The bride's sister, Mary, was maid of honor and David L. Webster of Brookline, brother of the groom, was best man. Miss Doris Gleason of Ludlow, niece of the bride, was flower girl